New programs & additional Information

New 'JUMP' program brochure

Overview

JUMP is a strengths-based program in the form of a workbook, for a young person to work through with a facilitator or wellbeing worker. This program aims to develop skills, resilience and a positive sense of identity, and is comprised of 5 key topics.

New look 'SPARC' program brochure

Overview

SPARC is an eight week social and emotional student small group program that focuses on five key areas. The program encourages students to dream big, set goals, work in teams and equips them with basic fundamental skills to navigate various challenges in life. SPARC is currently available for Primary and High school as individual programs that target particular age groups.
